EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, or age (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or parts of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith, exercised any rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal Agency that administers compliance with the law concerning this creditor is the Federal Trade Commission. If a person believes he or she was denied assistance in violation of this law, they should contact the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, DC. 20580.

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in real estate transactions, or in the terms of conditions of such a transaction, because of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status, or national origin. The federal agency that is responsible for enforcing this law is the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. If a person believes that they have been discriminated against in violation of this law, they should contact the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, DC 20410 or call (800) 669-9777.

ATTACHMENT TO LETTER NOTIFYING CUSTOMERS OF
AN ADVERSE DECISION THAT IS APPEALABLE

The decision described in the attached letter did not [grant you the assistance you requested or will terminate or reduce the assistance you are currently receiving]. If you believe this decision or the facts used in this case are in error, you may pursue any or all of the following three options:

Option 1 — Informal Review

If you have questions concerning this decision or the facts used in making it and desire further explanation, you may write this office to request an informal review. There is no cost for an informal review. Your written request must be postmarked no later than 15 calendar days from the date of [the attached letter or this letter]. You must present any new information, evidence, and possible alternatives along with your request. You may also have a representative or legal counsel participate in the process, at your cost. The informal review may be conducted by telephone or in person, at the discretion of the Agency. Please include a daytime phone number in your request to arrange for your review. You may skip this step in the informal process and select one of the following two options. If you do, you will automatically waive your right to an informal review.

Option 2— Mediation as a Type of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

You have the right to request mediation for the issues that are available for mediation. The purpose of mediation is to resolve disputes through the use of a neutral, third party mediator. A mediator will listen to all parties involved in the dispute and work with all parties to achieve a resolution that all parties are in agreement with. However, a mediator cannot change the Agency decision. You will have to pay 50 percent of the cost of mediation. USDA Rural Development will pay the other 50 percent of the cost. If you need information to assist you in deciding whether to seek mediation, contact South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG).

If you elect to seek mediation, your written request for this service must be sent to SPAG at the address below and must be postmarked within 30 calendar days from the date you receive [the attached letter or this letter].

South Plains Association of Governments
Texas Rural Mediation Services
1323 58th Street
Lubbock, Texas 79412
(800) 858-1809 or (806) 762-8721
spag.drc@iuno.com
FAX: (806)-765-9544

You will be advised directly by SPAG if they can mediate your case. Once you request mediation, it stops the running of the 30-day period in which you may request an appeal (described in Option 3). If mediation does not result in resolution of these issues, you have the right to continue with a request for an appeal hearing as set forth in Option 3.

If you request mediation prior to filing for an appeal, the number of days you will have to request an appeal will be 30 days from the adverse decision minus the numbers of days you took to request mediation. Mediation does not take the place of, or limit your rights to, an appeal to the National Appeals Division (NAD); however, an NAD appeal hearing would take place after mediation. You may skip mediation and request an appeal hearing. However, in doing so, you will automatically waive your rights to an informal meeting or mediation.

Option 3— Request an Appeal

You may request an appeal hearing by the NAD rather than an informal review or mediation. There is no cost for an appeal. Your request for an appeal must be made no later than 30 calendar days from the date you receive [the attached letter or this letter]. You must write the Assistant Director of NAD, for your region at the following address:

National Appeals Division
Attn: Western Regional Assistant Director
755 Parfet Street, Suite 494
Lakewood, Colorado 80215-5599

Your request for an NAD hearing must state the reasons why you believe the decision is wrong, be personally signed by you, and must include a copy of the attached letter. A copy of your request must also be sent to the Texas USDA Rural Development State Director at:

State Director
USDA Rural Development
Attn: Texas ADR Coordinator
101 South Main Street, Suite 102
Temple, Texas 76501

You have the right to an appeal hearing within 45 days of the receipt of your request. You or your representative or counsel may contact this office anytime during regular office hours in the 10 calendar days following the receipt of your request for a hearing to examine or copy relevant non-confidential material in your file. Photocopies will be provided to you. Your representative or counsel should have your written authorization to represent you and review your file.

The NAD Hearing Officer will contact you regarding a time and place for the hearing. You may also request a teleconference hearing in lieu of the face-to-face hearing. At any time before the scheduled hearing, you may also request that the Hearing Officer make a decision without a hearing. If you do, the Hearing Officer's decision will be based on the USDA Rural Development file, any written statements or evidence you may provide and any additional information the Hearing Officer thinks necessary.
